

Kansas Funeral Directors Association

Code of Ethics

In order to foster and perpetuate high ethical standards of funeral service.

WE PLEDGE: To conduct all services with dignity, respecting the confidence of every family.

Sincere respect to all creeds, careful observance of the religion and customs of every family, and cooperation with the clergy.

Support of our professional organization in their efforts to improve the standards of funeral service.

Compliance with and adherence to the laws, rules and regulations affecting our profession.

To refrain from using advertising which could and might foster misunderstanding by the public concerning the fair cost of funeral service.

To refrain from offering service and/or merchandise to any group or organization that is not offered to the general public.

Fair and honorable relations with other members of the profession.

To so conduct ourselves, as never to warrant or justifiably provoke unfavorable comment against us or the profession.

THEREFORE: We, as members of the Kansas Funeral Directors Association agree to be guided and abide by the Code of Ethics and our Rules of Professional Conduct.
